ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The makers of our constitution clearly incorporated the fundamental rights and fundamental duties of every citizen of the country. Most of us are aware of our fundamental rights, but the same cannot be said about our fundamental duties. In 1976, by way of the 42nd Constitution (Amendment) Act, a new Chapter IV-A which consists of only one Article i.e 51-A was added which dealt with a Code of Ten Fundamental Duties of every citizen. The inclusion of Fundamental Duties brought our Constitution in line with article 29 (1) of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and with provisions in several modern Constitutions of other countries. These fundamental duties for their citizens are not obligatory or mandatory legal duties. but moral obligations. The fundamental duties obligate all citizens to respect the national symbols of India, including the Constitution, to cherish its heritage, preserve its composite culture and assist in its defence. They also obligate all Indians to promote the spirit of common brotherhood, protect the environment and public property, develop scientific temper, abjure violence, and strive towards excellence in all spheres of life.

The Seminar aims at enlightening the staff and students about their duties towards the Nation.
