Travelling Film Festival

11 & 12 February 2019

Men Against Violence and Abuse (MAVA), Mumbai, and Department of Sociology, Gondia Education Society's J. M. Patel Arts, Commerce & Science College, Bhandara, in collaboration with, 'Ek Swapn, Ek Aasha', a Bhandara based NGO, are jointly organizing "Samabhav", a 2 days Travelling Film Festival on 11th & 12th February 2019.

The travelling film festival, a J.M.Patel College Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) supported initiative, would engage young minds through healthy conversations with experts on contemporary gender issues related to all 3 genders (Men, Women and Transgenders), and advocate for a healthy, pluralistic, gender-just society. The purpose is to increase awareness among youth regarding gender-based discrimination and violence through screening of films and facilitated discussions. The fest aims at developing a gender-just perspective among the youth and to make them reflect on their biases, prejudices and regressive attitudes towards any gender. It would provide a safe, non-threatening platform to ventilate differences and celebrate diversity in Gender.

The Following Movies will be screened:

- Khara ki Khota – Pure or Impure (Hindi, English and Marathi)
- Juice (Hindi)
- Sundar-Beautiful (Marathi)
- Daaravtha-The Threshold (Marathi)
- Khule Aasman ke Niche-Under the open sky (Hindi)
- Khel Badal- Change the Game (Hindi)
- Ek Inquilab aur Aaya (Hindustani, Urdu, English)
- The World before Her (Hindi, English)
- Nakusha – Unwanted is my Name (Marathi, English)
- Conversations about Consent and Rejection (Hindi & English)
- Dreaming Free: Exploring Shades of Gendered Resistance (Hindi & English)

and Many More...

(Movies are subject to change, depending on availability of time.)

The discussant for the film festival will be - Harish Sadani, Suraj Pawar, Dr. Pradeep Meshram, Pramodkumar Anerao (writer) and Prasanna Hambarde (actor).
