About Workshop :

Naandi are working for various sectors and creating the content based on the need of the market with multi-model technique, learner centric, activity based, problem based and project based learning. Through Life skills courses, learners are enabled to equip and hone their life skills through our program for their holistic self-development. Life skills that are imparted are Goal setting, Time management, Professional etiquette, Team building, Emotional awareness, Collaboration, Creativity, Social awareness, etc. Collaboration and team-building skills have become core life skills in demand at any workplace. Through peer learning and real-world problem solving, the learners are equipped with the required life and business skills. It, in turn, elevates their confidence to face real work-life challenges and conflicts that may arise in any personal or professional situation.
